Papers and posters – author guidelines

GUIDELINES FOR POSTER AND FREE PAPER ABSTRACTS

Thank you for your interest in submitting an abstract for a poster and/or free paper presentation at Wound Care Today 2019.

The deadline for all abstracts for both posters and free papers is Monday 31st December 2018.

Your abstract should be a maximum of 350 words (plus the lead author's full name, job title, address, including postcode, daytime telephone number and email address).

Categories include:

- Innovations in practice — from technology to improving patient outcomes
- Challenging wound care trends — reducing the variants that affect all wound care providers
- Complex and challenging case reports — share your experiences.

All products should be referred to with generic names. Any papers with brand or company names in the abstract will be rejected.

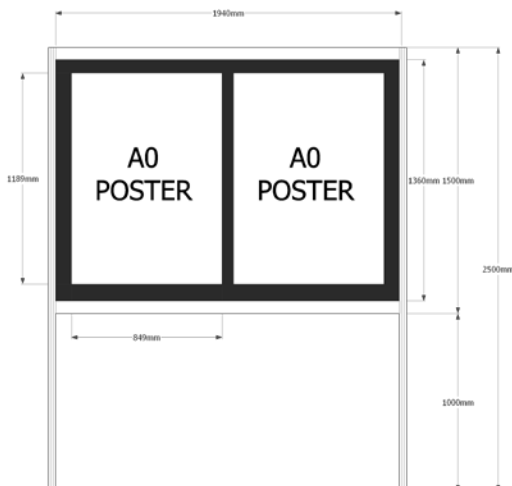

Abstracts are submitted via our website – please go to www.woundcare-today.com/call-for-abstracts

POSTER SIZES AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAKE UP

If you are advised that your poster has been accepted the following is a list of guidelines to be followed for the make up of your poster.

- The area for poster presentation (including title) is 1189mm high x 849mm wide (A0 size), which should include space for your title, author(s) and affiliations(s). Please see diagram at the end of this document

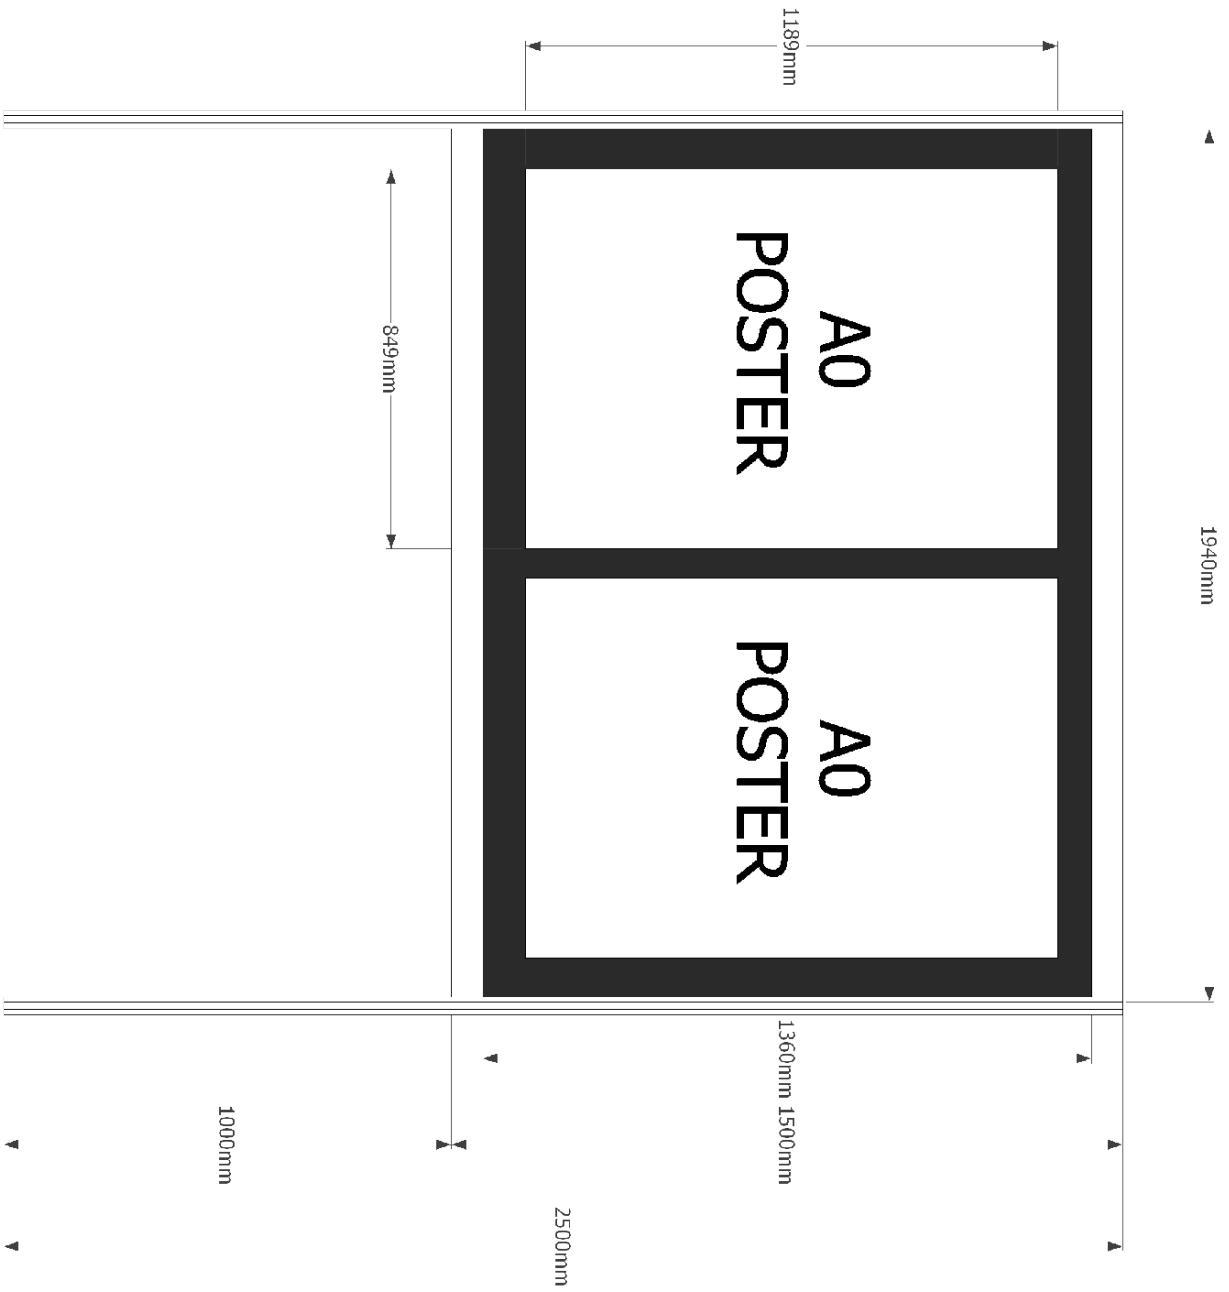

- Prepare the title, author name(s) and affiliation(s) and text on paper or other material that is light enough in weight to be held by Velcro on the fabric-covered poster panels. The materials can be on one sheet so that it can be rolled up for easy transport to the meeting or can be separate panels for individual mounting
- Include the title (75 point)
- Subheading size (30-35 point)
- Text lettering (25-30 point).
- DO NOT write on the poster panels or use pins to affix materials to the panels
- To find out where your poster should be hung a list will be on display in the registration area. Look for your name – the list is in alphabetical order. Alongside your name will be a poster board number and the area within the Conference Centre where your poster board is for displaying your poster. Poster numbers are situated on the upper left corner of the poster board
- A supply of Velcro for affixing your material to the poster board will be available in the poster session areas
