

Day 1 1st March 2023

08.30–10.00	Registration and exhibition
10.00–10.15	Opening remarks by Helen Shoker, clinical director, Wound Care Today and introduction of event chair , Paul Vaughan, deputy director, Primary Care Nursing and NextGen Nurse, NHS England
10.15–11.30	Fly higher Sarah Furness, ex RAF combat helicopter pilot and squadron leader, mindfulness coach, human performance facilitator, best selling author of 'Fly Higher', and founder of Well Be It
11.30–11.50	All Our Health Framework: what is it, why it matters, and your role as an advocate Professor Jamie Waterall, deputy chief nurse, Office for Health Improvement Know your demographics — examples from practice, who to link with, what/how to take back into practice
11.50–12.00	Questions from the audience
12.00–14.00	Lunch/exhibition/skills zone
14.00–14.10	Welcome and introduction to afternoon sessions Paul Vaughan, deputy director, Primary Care Nursing and NextGen Nurse, NHS England
14.15–14.50	Patient choice, concordance and engagement International speaker: Dianne Rudolph, nurse practitioner, San Antonio Wound Care, USA
14.50–15.10	Reducing inequalities in wound care, case studies — question and answer discussion panel Keith Harding and panel
15.10–15.15	Questions from the audience
15.15–16.15	Break/exhibition/skills zone
16.15–16.45	Closing the gap: reducing wound care inequality across different care settings Lauren Thorpe, clinical nurse specialist in wound care, Coventry and Warwickshire Partnership Trust
16.45–17.00	Summary/evaluation of today's event

Day 2 2nd March 2023

08.30–09.00	Exhibition opens
09.00–09.10	Welcome and open of day two Paul Vaughan, deputy director, Primary Care Nursing and NextGen Nurse, NHS England
09.10–09.40	Nursing home work [title tbc] Pam Cooper, clinical partner, Pioneer Wound Healing and Lymphoedema Centres
09.40–10.10	The opportunity to heal compromised skin integrity and hard-to-heal wounds Alison Parnham, teaching associate clinical nurse specialist — tissue viability, School of Health Sciences, University of Nottingham
10.10–11.10	Break/exhibition/skills zone
11.10–12.00	First-time speaker sessions
12.00–12.20	Diabetic foot ulcer homeless project Emily Haworth, clinical lead podiatrist, Swansea Bay University Health Board
12.20–12.30	Questions from the audience
12.30–14.00	Lunch/exhibition/skills zone
14.00–14.45	Free paper sessions
14.50–15.30	Value of digital tech and data in wound care Professor Jenni Macdonald, nurse consultant, tissue viability, Acute, Primary and Community Care, NHS Lothian
15.30–15.45	Professional reflection — taking action Paul Vaughan, deputy director, Primary Care Nursing and NextGen Nurse, NHS England
15.45–16.00	Summary/evaluation and close of event

Book now: www.woundcare-today.com/conference/milton-keynes-2023