

Day 1 Wednesday 6th March 2024

08.30–10.00	Registration and exhibition
10.00–10.15	Opening remarks by Helen Shoker, clinical director, Wound Care Today and introduction of conference chair, Paul Vaughan, deputy director, Primary Care Nursing and NextGen Nurse, NHS England
10.15–11.10	Harnessing the power of human emotion and personal purpose to achieve our true potential Personal development session: Vicki Anstey, world record holder, adventurer, award-winning entrepreneur, Ted-X speaker, mentor, mental skills coach and athlete
11.10–11.30	Lymphoedema — journeys taken together Garry Cooper-Stanton, doctoral researcher, senior teaching fellow, Queen's Nurse, associate dean of the School of Nursing and Midwifery, University of Central Lancashire
11.30–11.55	Re-imagining wound care delivery: a virtual approach Cerys Stowe, lead tissue viability nurse specialist, Fundamentals of Care team; David Cruttenden-Wood, consultant colorectal surgeon; Rebecca Housley, consultant nurse, telemedicine, virtual wards and the communication centre, all at Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
11.55–12.00	Questions from the audience
12.00–14.00	Lunch/exhibition/skills zones
14.00–14.15	Welcome, introduction to afternoon sessions Paul Vaughan, deputy director, Primary Care Nursing and NextGen Nurse, NHS England
14.15–14.50	Free paper sessions Selected speakers have the opportunity to present their work as oral presentations
14.50–15.00	Questions from the audience
15.00–16.00	Break/exhibition/skills zones
16.00–16.20	Debridement: why and how? Alison Parnham, teaching associate clinical nurse specialist — tissue viability, School of Health Sciences, University of Nottingham
16.20–17.00	Measuring quality in wound care: demystifying statistical process control tools Siobhan Mccoulough, tissue viability nurse consultant, Pioneer Wound Healing and Lymphoedema Centres
17.00–17.15	Summary/evaluation of today's conference

Day 2 Thursday 7th March 2024

08.30–09.00	Exhibition opens
09.00–09.10	Welcome and open of day two Paul Vaughan, deputy director, Primary Care Nursing and NextGen Nurse, NHS England
09.10–09.40	Wounds, digital tech, AI and the role of the nurse Panel discussion: Joanna Swan, senior lecturer in tissue viability, Birmingham City University ; Samantha Haigh, lead nurse in tissue viability, York and Scarborough Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust ; Dorothy Bean, regional chief nursing information officer, NHS England South West and IT systems analysis and design student, University of Oxford
09.40–10.00	Radiotherapy injury in different skin tones Naman Julka-Anderson, Macmillan radiotherapist, co-creator of Rad Chat
10.00–11.00	Break/exhibition/skills zones
11.00–11.40	Managing oncological surgical wounds with a focus on reducing the risk of infection International speaker: Sara Carvalhal, surgical oncologist, melanoma, sarcoma and peritoneal malignancy unit wound care team
11.40–12.00	Impactful clinical leadership Ines Pereira, nurse consultant in tissue viability, NHS Grampian
12.00–12.15	Questions from the audience
12.30–13.45	Lunch/exhibition/skills zones
14.00–14.50	First-time speaker sessions Speakers who have never spoken at a national wound care event have the opportunity to present their work
14.50–15.30	Collaborative working between primary care, community care and the integrated care board (ICB) Jane Parker, PCN tissue viability specialist nurse, West Norfolk Coastal and King's Lynn PCNs ; Rachel Sweeney, tissue viability specialist nurse, Norfolk Community Health and Care NHS Trust
15.30–15.45	Creating your narrative for change Paul Vaughan, deputy director, Primary Care Nursing and NextGen Nurse, NHS England
15.45–16.00	Summary/evaluation and close of conference